Exhibit B

DEPT. S24 COURTROOM RULES/PROCEDURES

EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

All ex-parte applications must be reserved directly with the department prior to any filing. (909)708-8718. Ex partes are set Monday through Friday at 9:00 a.m.

Self-represented litigants may use e-file or file the pleadings directly in the courtroom. Attorneys must use e-file only. No courtesy copies are allowed. The pleadings must be received in the courtroom or time stamped (if using e-file) before 11:45 a.m. the day prior to your hearing. If the documents are not received in the courtroom or e-filed before the cut-off time, the hearing will not be set, and the reservation will be canceled. You are welcome to file early.

The Court shall review and rule on the ex-parte in chambers. No appearances are required for an ex-parte in this department. Parties can check the court docket for the court's ruling at the end of the day. Movant is required to give notice to all parties of the court's ruling.

INITIAL TRIAL SETTING CONFERENCE

Except for collection and or landlord tenant cases, initial trial setting conferences are not called on the record and no appearance is required. A minute order will be prepared with the next hearing date and notice will be mailed to all parties or attorneys with an address on file.

COURT CALL

S24 does not accept CourtCall appearances. All telephonic appearances must be made through Zoom. Refer Remote Proceeding tab and Zoom Rules for S24 for further instruction.

VIRTUAL APPEARANCES

Virtual appearance for trial or evidentiary hearings requires prior Court approval. Virtual appearances are allowed for all other hearings without prior Court approval.

Please use local form No.13-20100-360 when submitting a request to appear virtually.

ZOOM APPEARANCES

Judge Carlos M. Cabrera, Dept. S24

Advance request and court order: Timely request to appear virtually and prior court approval is required before a party or witness may appear virtually for trial or evidentiary hearing. In making the request, attorneys and self-represented litigants are required to use the Judicial Council forms (RA-010, RA-015, and local form 13-20100-360).

Sufficient Technology: Anyone appearing using Zoom is affirming that they possess and will use sufficient technology and connectivity to allow them to properly and safely attend a court hearing. This means that you are using a computer capable of running the software; you have a reliable connection sufficient to support a video connection (if needed); and you have a microphone and a camera (if needed).

Advance login: Parties must log on to Zoom at least 15 minutes in advance of the scheduled hearing time. Unlike CourtCall, there is no dedicated attendant available to handle a late login. The Zoom link will be locked approximately 5 minutes before the hearings begin and you will not be allowed into the Zoom meeting. This means that for the 9:00 am calendar the link will be locked approximately 8:55. Failure to log in timely will be considered a non-appearance.

Identification: Parties will use a Zoom login that reflects the name of the person appearing. (Do not log in with a "handle" or phone number). The Judicial Assistant may change your login to reflect case calendar information. Prior to the start of the hearing, the parties appearing by Zoom will provide, via the chat box feature, the name of the party appearing and the case name relevant to the appearance, if any. Attorneys will also provide their Bar Number and name of the client being represented. Provisionally licensed attorneys must identify themselves as such and identify their supervising attorney.

Etiquette: Parties using Zoom, to make an "in person" virtual appearance, must have their camera on once their case is called and be in proper courtroom attire. Similarly, parties must make sure that their backgrounds are appropriate for a court setting. Parties using Zoom to appear via telephonic means do not have to have their camera on once case is called. The parties must also remain on mute except when their matter is called. Importantly, general courtroom etiquette applies to Zoom appearances. The Court reserves the right to terminate the connection for any reason and it reserves the right to escort a party out of the courtroom.

Waiver of Review: Parties who choose to appear remotely understand that the technology has limitations. While the court will try to accommodate questions about documents and other items produced in person at hearing, remote participants are waiving the right to inspect such documents and other items. A continuance may not be granted solely on the ground they are not able to view certain documents or pleadings.
